

Residence Life Housing Agreement

Agreement

This is an Agreement made by and between the student whose name appears on the statement of confirmation of this agreement (“Student”) and Lancaster Bible College (“LBC”). The use of the word “you” or “your” refers to the undersigned student.

This Agreement grants to the Student permission to occupy a residence hall space on campus for a specific period of time. This Agreement is not a lease. The Student is not a tenant. Living in campus housing is a privilege that is part of the overall educational experience provided by the College. Students who live on campus are expected to make a commitment to contribute positively to the campus community by abiding by the responsibilities outlined in this Agreement and all associated guidelines and policies. Completing this Agreement is a prerequisite to living on campus.

The Agreement is for room space without regard to designated residential facilities, specific rooms, or specific roommates.

This Agreement is legally binding. It incorporates and supports policies stated in Lancaster Bible College Residential Living Handbook and The Journey Student Handbook policies. If Student is under age 18, a parent or legal guardian must sign the Agreement confirmation, along with Student. Student will be held accountable for the information in this Agreement. Please read carefully before signing this Agreement.

Affirmation of the College’s Policy of Non-Discrimination

It is the policy of Lancaster Bible College to offer equal and non-discriminatory housing to students. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age, disability or veteran status in provision of residential facilities and services.

Housing Requirement

All undergraduate, degree-seeking students taking at least twelve (12) academic credits are required to live in College-owned housing for up to eight (8) consecutive semesters after matriculation to the College. If at any point in a semester you are attempting fewer than twelve (12) academic credit hours, you must notify Residence Life of your change in status. Generally, you will be permitted to remain in College-owned housing for the remainder of the semester. However, the College retains the right, in its discretion, to revoke your occupancy in College housing. In such a case, you must vacate your assigned room within forty-eight (48) hours of your receipt of written notice, unless Residence Life defines a longer period.

The College will terminate a room assignment if: (1) you fail to register for at least twelve (12) academic credits in a given semester, (2) you fail to occupy the assigned College housing, or (3) you fail to pay all College fees, including tuition and, separately, room and board.

Exceptions to the Housing Requirement

Commuter Policy

A Commuter is defined as a student who lives at their permanent residence with family members. Commuters may include full-time undergraduate students who are living with a parent or legal guardian within forty (40) miles of the College, OR who are married and living with a spouse, OR who are residing with their own children as a primary caregiver, OR who are at least twenty-five (25) years of age. Children, spouses, and parents are not permitted to reside in College housing. We encourage students to discuss this option with their families as soon as possible. There may be implications to your financial aid package by changing your housing status from residential to commuter. Students wishing to change their status from Resident to Commuter must contact Residence Life to verify their eligibility and confirm their release from the Housing Agreement.

Housing Agreement Release

Full-time undergraduate students who will have successfully completed at least ninety (90) academic credits, OR are at least twenty-three (23) years of age by the start of the fall semester AND are in good standing with the College (not on academic or disciplinary probation) are eligible to apply for release from the Housing Agreement. Requests for release from the Housing Agreement must be approved in writing by the office of Residence Life. Requests for release are reviewed in the Spring semester for the following academic year. Requests to be released received after the advertised deadline, including mid-year, will not be approved. The College reserves the right to limit the number of students who are released from the Housing Agreement each year. The College also reserves the right to revoke approval for release if the student does not successfully complete 90 credits prior to the start of the fall semester, or is no longer in good standing with the College. Students approved for release must submit a copy of their off-campus lease to Residence Life, as well as disclose the names of their intended roommates.

Time Period of Housing Agreement

This Agreement addresses provisions related to housing for each academic school year you are a student at Lancaster Bible College for up to eight (8) consecutive semesters, as published by the College in its Academic Calendar. Consistent with College policies, your obligations regarding the housing assigned to you by the College begin on the day you are scheduled each year by the College to check-in to your housing for the fall semester (the “check-in” date). Your obligations under this Agreement end on the date the College closes campus housing in the spring semester each year (the “closing date”), as determined by Residence Life.

This Agreement will be temporarily suspended while residence halls close during specified days for Winter Break. The College reserves the right to, in its sole discretion, suspend this Agreement, if necessary, to protect the health and safety of its students, staff, or faculty. In addition, the College may cancel this Agreement at any time without any refund if you violate College policy and rules as set forth in or rules concerning occupancy of on-campus housing found in this Agreement and the LBC Student Handbook/Policies. These rules and policies are incorporated into this Agreement by reference. A grant of a license under the terms of this Agreement does not imply that Student has the right to occupy campus housing in the future.

The College will provide you with reasonable advance notice of the closing dates for Winter and Summer Breaks. As set forth in this Agreement, you are responsible for the housing assigned to you (i.e. room within a residence hall or apartment) and attendant common areas until you have vacated your assigned housing, your belongings have been removed from the assigned housing, and you have completed the College's residential checkout process, as supervised by Residence Life. The College reserves the right to enforce the terms of this Agreement (e.g. restitution for damaged property) after the closing date.

 - b. You will abide by the terms of this Agreement, College's policies, including without limitation the Student Handbook, and by standards established by the College's staff of the residence hall assigned to you. You acknowledge that the violation of this Agreement, the College's policies, or of the standards established by the College's staff of the residence hall assigned to you may result in disciplinary action (please refer to the Student Handbook for more information) or administrative revocation of on-campus residence and termination of the Housing Agreement at any time.

- c. As a licensee, but not as a lessee, you will occupy and reside in only the room or apartment assigned to you by the College. Further, you will comply with any changes in your room assignment as directed by Residence Life.

- f. You acknowledge and understand that the College does not provide storage for personal belongings other than what is provided for your use in your assigned room or unit, including over the summer break.
- g. You agree to pay Room and Board fees each semester according to the payment policy outlined by the tuition and fees schedule. Room and Board fees due for the Fall and Spring semesters are placed on your account prior to the upcoming semester. LBC reserves the right to remove Student from the College housing for non-payment of Student's account of charges (including but not limited to: tuition, room and board).
- h. All new residential students will pay a $200 enrollment deposit when they commit to attending LBC. This fee serves as your housing deposit and is non-refundable. This must be paid via your Admissions link or to the LBC Solution Center before a room assignment will be made. All returning students must pay $100 Residence Life Fees as part of the Housing Application before a room assignment is made. This fee represents Student's housing deposit. This fee is non-refundable and may not be transferred to tuition.
- i. As a condition of occupancy, you agree to register for a minimum of 12 credit hours each semester during the term of this Agreement, unless the Student receives written permission from Associate Deans of Student Affairs for a reduction of hours.
- j. Any students living in traditional residence halls will select and purchase a meal plan to be used in on-campus dining. Students living in the apartments are not required to have a meal plan but may choose an option that suits their need. Please choose carefully as Student will have to keep the same plan for the entire year; however, you are able to add Charger Bucks throughout the semester. Please note that Flex Dollars and meals included with meal plans do NOT roll over between semesters. Separately purchased Charger Bucks will roll over.
- k. If withdrawing from the College you must notify Residence Life. If Residence Life is not notified, you will be charged in full for your assigned room or apartment. If you withdraw from the College after the beginning of the semester, you remain responsible for that semester's housing fees on a pro-rated basis. If you withdraw from the College, you will vacate your assigned room, including removing all personal belongings, within twenty-four (24) hours after tendering your withdrawal to the College.

- I. You acknowledge that you are not entitled to any refund of any housing fees from the College if you are expelled or otherwise dismissed from the College.
- m. Eligible students may apply to be released from the Housing Agreement. The College may approve or deny the request. Unless you receive express written approval from Residence Life to be released from the Housing Agreement and live off campus you will continue to be charged the annual room rate. Residence Life will provide students with timely notice of Housing Agreement Release application dates.

Cancellation Policy

If Student completes the application process and is assigned a living space but does not enroll in classes for fall and/or spring term and/or fails to properly check in prior to the first day of class for any given term, LBC may cancel the housing agreement. Student will be considered a “no show” subject to forfeiture of his/her deposit.

This right to make alternate assignments and require relocations includes the authority to take such action as part of disciplinary actions. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to guarantee Students the right to live with a specific individual or to occupy a specific residential space. Occupancy of spaces by fewer or greater Students than the intended number requires the approval of the Office of Residence Life. Student is expected to only occupy assigned space. Any attempt to move a space other than Student's assignment will result in referral to the college student conduct system. If one Student moves from his or her assigned space, the remaining Student(s) will maintain the space in a manner that would permit another Student to be assigned immediately. LBC also reserves the right to assign Students to temporary accommodations in the event that occupancy is exceeded.
